Under the rules set out by WorkSafeBC and public health authorities (BCDCCD), all camp employees and participants must undergo a daily check for symptoms associated with COVID-19, and must go home if they develop any symptoms while they are at the day camp.

Both staff and parents or guardians of students will therefore undertake to do a daily check for Covid-19 symptoms:

Including but not limited to:

- Breathing difficulties

Staff and camp participants with symptoms must stay at home, they will not be allowed to re-join the camp until they were cleared to do so by medical authority (811 or physician).

As the parent or guardian of a camp participant, I undertake to check my child every morning for any Covid-19 like symptoms, before allowing them to go to camp, and to keep them home if they have any symptoms.

I also undertake to contact my physician or call 811 to confirm whether I need to isolate my child, and to get any necessary information (e.g. medical note, ID number, etc.) to pass on to the camp leaders before my child returns to camp. I undertake to do this daily check until the end of the camp, August 28th, 2020.

Finally, I undertake to go and pick up my child from the camp if they develop any symptoms over the course of the day.
